

Douglas Todd Murdock
(1) Phoebe Roberts
(2) Ethel Borden

MEMORIAL SERVICES

in Memory of

Douglas Todd Murdock

Tuesday, December 30, 1975

12:00 Noon

Heber First Ward Chapel

Heber City, Utah

Born May 19, 1889
in Heber City, Utah

Died December 27, 1975
in Heber City, Utah

PALLBEARERS

Ellis Clyde	Paul Roberts
Grant Roberts	Ralph Murdock
Eldon Mayoh	Andrew Allison
Joseph T. Coleman	Frank "Cot" Glazier

Flowers Being Cared For By The Heber First Ward
Relief Society

Military Honors - Lockhart Post of American Legion

FUNERAL SERVICES

Prelude & Postlude Joan K. Duke

Officiating Bishop Larry B. Duke

Family Prayer Newell Anderson, Nephew

Opening Prayer Walter Harrison

Musical Selection Roy Huffaker, Marjoria Provost
"Beyond The Sunset"

Accompanied by ReNee T. Carlile

Speaker Walter Montgomery

Musical Selection Larry and Ramon Duke
"Oh My Father"

Accompanied by Joan K. Duke

Speaker Ervin J. Anderson

Bishop's Remarks Bishop Larry B. Duke

Closing Prayer Melvin Moulton

Dedication of Grave Richard G. Bonner

Interment - Heber City Cemetery

Douglas T. Murdock

HEBER CITY — Douglas Todd Murdock, 86, Heber City, died in a Heber City hospital Dec. 27, 1975, of causes incident to age.

Born May 19, 1889, Heber City, to David N. and Margaret Todd Murdock. Married Phoebe Roberts Oct. 5, 1920. Salt Lake LDS Temple; she died November, 1942. Married Ethel Borden Feb. 11, 1942, Chamberlain, S.D.; solemnized, Salt Lake LDS Temple. Agricultural extension agent. Graduate BYU Academy, Utah State Agricultural College. Former school teacher. Employee, Department of Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs. Veteran WW I. Active amateur sportsman and noted athlete. Active in LDS Church.

Survivors: wife; son, Max V., Citrus Heights, Calif.; 2 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; brother, sisters, Stanley, Mesa, Ariz.; Mrs. Clifford (June) Hansen, Richfield; Mrs. Enid Roberts, Layton.

Funeral Tuesday noon, Heber City 1st LDS Ward Chapel. Friends call Olpin Funeral Home, Heber City, Monday 7-8 p.m., Tuesday hour before services. Burial, Heber City Cemetery.

